

“Alcohol & Recovery”

The 42nd Annual NDSAG Conference

New Directions in the Study of Alcohol Group Conference

Thursday 7th June 2018 – The University of Sheffield

All day conference that offers a mixture of research, agency and personal presentations. A specific exploration of what recovery discourses have to say about experiences of alcohol use and service provision.

ONLY £150

A limited number of reduced places are available for individuals/recovery groups (please contact Conference Administrator with initial enquiry for these)

Accommodation can be booked at Halifax Hall for the night of 6th June – please book this directly through the University.

(T: 0114 222 8810, E: stay@halifaxhall.co.uk, Halifax Hall, Endcliffe Vale Road, Sheffield, S10 3ER)

The conference will be preceded by PhD and Early Career Research Workshop on Wednesday 6th June 2018. This event is an interactive workshop format (rather than just presentations) and is designed to a) enable informed participant discussion and b) develop peer networks.

Places for the workshop are limited and cost £25 each, including lunch. For those early career peer researchers booking into this workshop can also book into the main conference day for an additional £25.

For further enquiries about the conference programme or PhD/Early Career Researcher content please contact either Dr Jamie Irving (j.irding@shu.ac.uk) or Dr Wulf Livingston (w.livingston@glyndwr.ac.uk)

The full conference programme will be finalised and circulated in April 2018.
