

New Directions 2018 Conference

Alcohol & Recovery

The 42nd Annual NDSAG Conference

Thursday 7th June—The University of Sheffield

“All day conference that offers a mixture of research, agency and personal presentations. A specific exploration of what recovery discourses have to say about experiences of alcohol use and service provision”.

09:00—09.40	Arrival and Registration
09:40—09:50	Welcome, House keeping Wulf Livingston, Chair
09:50—10:25	Recovery, what is it all about, definitions and headlines for alcohol Dr David Best
10:25—11:00	‘Who is ‘recovery’ for? Language, problems and identity issues?’ James Morris, London South Bank University Claire Melia, Keele University
11:00—11:30	Pedalling power—the role of recovery groups, beyond the treatment setting Simon Morgan, Recoverists International
11.30—12:00	Coffee Break
12:00—12:30	Recovery, Involvement and Research Mr. Andy Irving, University of Sheffield Karin Sibly & Steven Collier-Ellen, ShARRP
12:30—13:00	Are we nearly there yet? Josie Soutar, Sheffield Flourish
13:00—13:50	Lunch—in the hall
13:50—14:20	Spirituality: A floating signifier in recovery experiences Dr Wendy Dosset, University of Chester
14:20—14:40	Developing a residential recovery community James Deakin, Penhryn House
14:40—15:00	Tea and Coffee
15:00—15:30	“Mechanisms of change, from addiction to recovery” Tim Leighton, Action on Addiction
15:00—16:10	Plenary
16:15	Wulf Livingston (Chair) Conference Closes